To 1 -

The Director of Personnel tells me that the problem of numbers has been or is in the process of being resolved for the current classes. I presume that the CTP staff will continue discussions with DD/P representatives to determine the requirements for future classes. It should be noted that the DD/S, in a memorandum for the DD/P dated 30 August 1971, with copies to the Director of Training and the Director of Personnel, said that the CT Program staff anticipated requirements for the next three classes (through January 1973) to be 15, 17, and 16, respectively.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Possible CS Approval of Only Nine CT's for the September BOC

1. In a memorandum dated 30 August 1971 (DDS-3398) the DDS informed the DDP that we estimated 16 CT's from the July 1971 Class and 15 from the January 1972 Class would be headed for the Clandestine Service. We have used this memorandum as a basic planning document. The July 1971 Class has completed the BOC and the figure of 16 proved to be exact for numbers of CT's from that Class assigned to the CS. A special CS Panel is now interviewing candidates from the January 1972 Class for the September BOC. On 14 August the Chief, Junior Officer Affairs informed me that only nine of the 19 CT candidates would be approved for the September Course because the DDP would accept only 25 CT's during FY 1973. I stated that we had not been informed of this officially and as there is no record of disagreement with the DDS memorandum of 30 August 1971 we have considered the numbers cited in that memorandum as acceptable to the DDP. The Chief, Junior Officer Affairs acknowledged that there was no documentation on record instructing us to proceed otherwise.

2. At the close of business 17 August I met with the Chief, Junior Officer Affairs for an update on where we now stand on this question. He informed me that the CS Panel intended to rank the 19 CT's appearing before the Panel and submit these recommendations along with the DDS Memorandum of 30 August and commented that the CS is in a tenuous position to approve fewer than 15 CT's for the BOC if the Panel interviews clearly indicate at least this number qualify for BOC instruction. I told him that OTR was deeply concerned about this development and we were planning to discuss it with the DDS. [redacted] asked me not to prepare a formal memorandum until the Panel had completed interviewing the CT's. I told him I would inform the DTR of our conversation.

X1 4. [ ] The Panel feels [ ] has excellent reports officer potential and is encouraging [ ] to enter the DDP in that X1 capacity, but without the BOC because of the high number of applicants for the Course. I think [ ] does have good reports officer potential but feel that he would derive great benefit from the BOC which would give him practical experience in using agents to produce reports.

5. I am concerned that the current preoccupation with the apparent limited BOC enrollment will adversely affect the proper placement of the January 1972 CT Class. It would obviously not serve the interests of the Agency if the Panel is overly influenced by restrictions on BOC enrollment. There are highly talented CT's in this Class who could serve in either the DDI or DDP; they want to serve where they can be most effective and make the greatest contribution to the Agency. Here are four examples:

6. This CT Class has been selected with great care and have done well on their interim assignments. OTR should now make it clear to the DDP that we can provide adequate opportunity to test CT's in practical training situations even if it places a greater workload on the operational training staff. The number of openings in the next BOC should not be a primary factor in CT's selection if they are otherwise qualified and want the chance to show what they can do.

Mr. Colby

This confirms that I spoke both to DD/P and DD/I before signing the attached. DD/P indicated agreement under the caveat specified, e.g., that no commitment on his part is involved in the new hires. He did say that he hoped those brought on board would be the best qualified of the candidates and not those whose papers have been in process for the longest period. DD/I had no problem with the planned action.

Harry:

For your information. When I talked to DD/I about the January '72 CT class he mentioned that he foresees a need to reopen recruitment of economists. The statement seemed to be in terms of having to convince you to agree that this action is necessary. I told him that under the rules you would certainly be responsive to designation by him as DD/I of this as a critical category. I also mentioned the possibility that among the many CT candidates there could well be graduate economists who would be of interest.

SUBJECT : Entrance on Duty of Career Trainees

1. In order to avoid a hiatus in the Career Training Program, you are authorized to enter on duty up to 15 new Career Trainees for the class which begins in January 1972. These will of course be charged to the Career Training Program ceiling.

2. The above does not constitute or imply commitment on the part of the DD/P or the DD/I to accept upon completion of training and interim assignments any of these CT's. To the extent that any directorate enters as internal CT's officers currently occupying directorate ceiling positions it would be expected that the directorate concerned will accept from the January 1972 class at least an equivalent number of CT's upon completion of the training cycle--to do otherwise would result in what we would believe an inequitable credit against FY 72 ceiling reductions for the particular directorate.

5. To sum up, I believe there is very little risk involved in bringing on the seven or eight who now are cleared and ready, nor does a January class total of fifteen externals pose a serious problem. Candidates nowadays are being screened as rigidly as possible, and these are good people. I believe we incur a much more serious long-term risk by interrupting or abandoning this small input of new talent, not only in terms of the Agency's need for new blood, but in a public relations sense as well. I recommend you approve the entry on duty of the present seven or eight who are cleared and waiting. We should know where we stand with OMB before the next group is ready.

2. Members of the July 1971 class selected for the Clandestine Service would normally be transferred to the DDP in August 1972 (Fiscal Year 1973). This class could be transferred to the DDP during the last month of Fiscal Year 1972 if this is advantageous.

Bob:

I wish informally to alert you to our concern over the general welfare of the CT Program now and in the future. I do not want at this time, when we are all so occupied with the 1/10th of a grade and the 5% exercise, to muddy the waters more-- nonetheless these are important and even urgent matters for consideration. If you want a formal memo specifically asking for decisions on these questions-- will happily comply.

DRAFT 17 Sept 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Future of the Career Training Program

1. I am deeply concerned that the Career Training Program (CTP) may be in jeopardy because of current planning to reduce personnel. The decrease in average grade plus the five per cent strength reduction place the continued existence of the CTP in doubt. I want to acquaint you with this fact before Agency plans are firm and while there is still time for command decisions that will ensure the continuation of this useful program.

2. It is significant that neither the average grade nor the five per cent exercise will have any direct impact on the CTP. The Program can easily adjust to the decrease in average grade by simply recruiting candidates at slightly lower grades. Also, the five per cent reduction this fiscal year will be of no direct consequence to the Program because a recent reduction in the amount of training time required for each CT has correspondingly reduced the amount of time a CT must remain in the Program. In effect, this means that the current authorized ceiling of 100 is more than necessary to handle the yearly quota of 50. Actually, a ceiling of 80 would be realistic.

3. Although the direct effects of current planning may appear to have negligible effect on the CTP, the practical effects of the Directorate reductions could be catastrophic. Should the Plans and Intelligence Directorates anticipate difficulties in making their required reductions, then the usual routine acceptance of Career Trainees may be impossible for them unless some form of relief is offered.

4. While there probably are several forms that such relief could take, I suggest some type that provides for the continuing orderly transfer of CTs, in currently approved numbers, to Directorate rolls. The key factor in the plan would be a provision to permit the Directorates temporarily to exempt or to delay the counting of CTs against ceiling or strength figures. This would permit continuation of the Program during this critical period and until favorable numbers of vacancies become available in two to three years through retirements and attrition.

SUBJECT: Future of the Career Training Program

Hopefully, a plan of this type might be negotiable with the Office of Management and Budget as a positive means for continuing this important form of managerial development in the Agency. Otherwise, we may sacrifice a 20-year program that the Civil Service Commission has cited as one of the most outstanding of its type in the United States Government.

5. I suggest this matter of sufficient importance to be discussed with the Executive Director-Comptroller before final plans are developed for the forthcoming reduction in personnel.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Authority to Enter on Duty CT's

1. Since the freeze on employment we have continued to process CT applicants and at the present time these number around 85. Of these applicants four have reached the point where they are fully ready to enter on duty and two others are only waiting for the results of their medical examination. Of these six applicants two have been judged as primary candidates for the DDI, two suitable either for the DDI or DDP, one for the DDP, and one for the DDS.

2. In addition to the above six applicants we had made commitments at the time of the freeze to two others who appear to be primarily DDP oriented. However, no EOD date was established for these individuals.

3. In order not to lose these applicants we should like to have your approval to enter them on duty for the January 1972 CT class.
